

a Special Invitation for

Physician Couples

A Special Bed & Breakfast Experience for Physicians and their Spouses

Join us for a delightful weekend at the cozy Night Swan Bed and Breakfast at New Smyrna Beach.

This weekend will focus specifically on moving toward deeper intimacy through shared meaning, providing specific insight into handling conflict and enhancing communication.

The experience will provide powerful insights lasting a lifetime, drawing from solid relationship theory and experience working directly with physician relationships.

About the Facilitator

Shawn L. Zimmerman, PhD graduated from Andrews University with a PhD in Counseling Psychology, and has over 10 years of couples counseling experience. He currently provides individual and couples therapy, and whole person meaning programs for Florida Hospital physicians and their families.
